MEDICINAL.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out," as the saying goes, on such a proposition; but they know whereof they speak. They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, therefore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such unrivaled properties as to fully warrant its makers in publishing the remarkable offer above made in the utmost good faith.

"A short time ago I was almost dead with nervous prostration, general debility and female weakness," writes Mrs. Loretto Webster, of 317 Virginia Ave., Lexington, Ky., Worthy Treasurer, Independent Order of Good Templars, "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to me as a sure cure, and I found this to be true, for I obtained splendid results, securing fine health. Women ought to be grateful to think there is one safe and sure cure offered to them for their troubles. I advise every sick and suffering woman to stop spending money and wasting time with doctors' prescriptions, when a few bottles of your remedy is sure to cure. I am the happy mother of two children, boy aged sixteen, and girl, eight years."

Do not permit the dealer to insult your intelligence by suggesting some other compound which he recommends as "just as good," because he makes it himself. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has stood the test of time and experience. Thousands speak well of it—because thousands have been cured by it

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years when falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the researches of scientists the true cause and destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide positively destroys this germ, thus causing the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

LAWSON, THE METEOR.

That Tomas W. Lawson is a unique American product is acknowledged by his worst enemy.

He is tall, well built, with a ruddy complexion, a mass of black hair, sharp, piercing eyes that look you through and through and a square jaw. His hands are remarkably small for such a big man.

Mr. Lawson began his business career in 1872, when at the age of 15 he made a fortune by speculating in shares of Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad stock, which dropped from $50 a share to $3. He had been a spender, even at the age of 12 years. At that time he received a present of $100. He spent $87 on a present for his sister and the rest went toward making his brother happy.

When he made the fortune in Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland stock he made the money fly while it lasted. He got mixed up in the Boston Water Power Company and dropped the modest sum of $59,841 in jig time. But that left him with a hundred and fifty odd dollars, which he spent in giving his friends a dinner, handing his last $5 note to the head waiter.

That left Mr. Lawson with clean decks but it did not take him long to get into the game again. For the last 30 years no man has made and lost the fortunes like him; no man has spent the millions that he has in so many different ways. His motto is: "If you spend money, spend it like a gentleman," and he has lived up to this. If he wants a thing he buys it, just as he did when he paid $30,000 for the famous Lawson pink.

In the last historic crash of Amalgamated Copper Lawson is said to have lost $7,000,000—a mere bagatelle. Since that time he has made that much over and over again at times, according to common report.

So far as skyrocket speculation goes he excels even the "Betcher-a-million" John W. Gates. When he loses a fight he likes to write a book about his troubles and show up the inside workings of the financial world from his point of view to illustrate what little chance the general public has to make money unless by blind luck.

As one of the most versatile and picturesque American millionaires Mr. Lawson is always doing something new. When he bought the famous pink there were other bidders for the flowers. A New York concern offered $2,000 for the slip; Harlow W. Galvin made it $6,000; another florist made the bid of $15,000, and Lawson jumped it to $30,000.

No reverses in life ever stung him so deeply as the wound inflicted by the New York Yacht Club. He built the sloop Independence, and it looked for a time as if she might be chosen to defend the America's cup, but the New York Yacht Club declared the boat to be barred because Mr. Lawson was not a member of the club.

After writing a book about the disappointment, entitled "Lawson History of the America's Cup: A Record of Fifty Years," he smashed the Independence to bits and made souvenirs of her plates.

Mr. Lawson says that only one person can help a man in this world, and that is the person himself. Certainly few have helped him, for he has many enemies.

"They are all thoroughbreds," he says of his enemies. "Every one of them would rise from a sound sleep to do me an injury. Long may they live. They put spice into life."

To most men the loss a couple of million dollars would be a blow from which they would never recover. Not so with Mr. Lawson. More than once he has lost that amount with a smile, and more than a dozen times he has made that amount while the day laborer in front of his office was earning $2.

Among other things Mr. Lawson is noted for is his beautifull homes. His house in the exclusive Beacon street, in Boston, is a palace. He has a half-dozen beautiful farms where his crack trotters graze. When he tires of one place he buys another, for in this as well as every other phase of his career, Mr. Lawson believes that variety is the spice of life.

Feast of St. George.

At the winter palace in St. Petersburg yesterday was celebrated the Feast of St. George, the greatest militaay holiday of the year, when every man in Russia, no matter what his rank, upon whom the cross of St. George or a sword for bravery has been conferred is invited to be the Emperor's guest at dinner.

Notwithstanding the absence at the front of a large number of officers usually present it was a brilliant spectacle. The Grand Dukes in gorgeous uniforms and crippled veterans in the garb of private soldiers moved side by side through the throng. Many sailors of the cruiser Variag and the gunboat Korietz, sunk off Chemulpo at the opening of the war, were present. The Grand Duke Michael, grand-uncle of the Emperor, the only person possessing the order of St. George of the first class, bestowed on him for his victory over Mukhta Pasha, in 1877, was the center of especial attention.

The vast hall was lined by guards of honor, who saluted impartially each decorated hero, whether grand duke or private. The ceremony consisted of a grand imperial procession and Te Deum at the Cathedral, followed by a dinner spread in the Nicholas and St. George white saloons. About 400 guests were present. The Emperor was in a particularly gracious mood, displaying especial attention to the soldiers and sailors who earned their decorations during the present war.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered. For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel trouble Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by all druggists.

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J. W. Smith of Juliff, Texas. For biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation these Tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING. DEC. 10, 1904.

DISPATCHES from the East show that the Japanese paid dearly for the advantageous position they now occupy near Port Arthur. They were literally mowed down by hundreds in their assaults upon Metre Hill. The victors are said to have made desperate rushes over the bodies of their dead in renewed attacks after having been forced back by the Russians. The captured trenches, it is said, were veritable hells under the Russian shrapnel fire. The horrors of war were never in the history of the race more vividly in evidence than in the sanguinary conflict now in progress in the East. Both nations engaged in the struggle seem determined to keep it up until the last man has been killed or rendered hors de combat and the last cent expended. Should Russia emerge victorious she will have paid dearly for Manchuria and many years will elapse before the nation can recuperate. Should the Japanese succeed in forcing the Muscovites out of the coveted realm an equally long time will have elapsed before they will find themselves in the condition they were a year ago. Both, however, are fighting for territory which rightfully belongs to China.

SOCIALISTS are still making themselves heard in the German Reichstag, and Von Vollmar's attack upon the government yesterday was bitter and his reference to Emperor William's dispatch to President Roosevelt significant. Among other things the speaker said that socialists by no means see their ideal in American conditions, republican capitalism, the speaker declaring, was no better than monarchic. There are many things in the United States that are improvements upon European conditions, among them the absence of compulsory military service. But socialists are hard to please and still harder to understand. During the Haymarket turmoils in Chicago in 1886 a German, who entertained certain radical opinions concerning political economy, came to this country, but soon became dissatisfied with the order of things as he saw them, and concluded to return to the fatherland. One of his observations was to the effect that this country was no better than Germany, as rich people were allowed to retain their possessions here as in the old country.

The extraordinary circumstances in connection with the exploits of Mrs. Chadwick fill many columns of the principle newspapers of this country, and as the search-light is to be brought to play on her numerous transactions the case becomes more and more remarkable. There is doubtless much the public will never learn, while there is every reason to believe that the woman has confederates, most of whom will, if possible, keep in the shade. It is now thought that the Andrew Carnegie whose name appeared on certain checks is that of some obscure individual and not the multi-millionaire, and that Mrs. Chadwick will endeavor to escape the meshes of the law by making him the scape goat.

THE HOUSE judiciary committee yesterday reported, with a recommendation that it lie on the table, the resolution offered by Mr. Baker, of Brooklyn, alleging a combination of steel concerns, and calling on the Attorney General for information as to what steps he has taken looking to prosecutions. The steel trust is too powerful to allow "outside" investigation by Congress!

...refusing to grant a writ of error the ...rt of Appeals has sustained the Corporation Commission in a decision that ...rolling stock of railroads must be assessed for taxation in the city wherein the general State offices are located. This is a most unfortunate decision for Alexandria for under it the city loses a considerable sum which in equity the city should receive in taxes.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 10.

Second Lieutenant Paul H. McDonald of the Tenth Infantry, recently resigned from the service, and came to this city this week to urge the War Department to accept the same. While at the department he was placed under arrest upon charges preferred by the regimental commander at Fort Lawton, alleging various irregularities in financial transactions, including the duplication of his pay accounts and obtaining money under false pretences. Lieutenant McDonald was first taken to Fort Myer and later sent to Fort Lawton, Wash. He is a native of Virginia and rose to commissioned rank from an enlisted man, being appointed about a year ago.

The congressional programme for the next week is interesting especially in the Senate because of the announcement that the committee on privileges and elections is about to resume consideration of the Smoot case. The hearings will begin Monday and much of the testimony will be to show the character of oaths taking by Mormons passing through the Endowment House, of which Senator Smoot has taken all the degrees. The claim is that these oaths, assumed at that time, are in conflict with the oath of a United States Senator, placing many things higher than allegiance to the constitution of the United States. The regular order in the Senate will be the Philippine bill. The bill passed the House at the last session. The vote will be taken Friday afternoon. In the House the Swayne impeachment case will be the important event. Some time will be devoted to pension legislation and perhaps a call of committees may be made. Although the House has adopted a resolution fixing Dec. 21, as the day of adjournment for the holiday recess, it is believed that the Senate will amend it so as to to fix adjournment for next Saturday.

If the remarks of Congressmen who visit the White House have much weight with President Roosevelt he will not only adandon the idea of calling an extra session in the spring to take up tariff revision, but will drop the subject altogether. At any rate, the anti-revisionists seem to be more outspoken these days than their brethren who want changes made. These members are against any tariff revision now or at any other time.

That the President has decided definitely not to call an extra session of Congress after the close of the present session was made certain this morning by his declaration to Representative Cooper of Texas that he would visit that state sure in the spring. Heretofore he has said in response to invitations to make a southern trip, that he would do so provided there should be no extra session to prevent. His statement to Mr. Cooper removes all question in the matter. If there is any extra session for the purpose of considering tariff legislation it will not meet until next fall.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company, had a consultation with President Roosevelt this morning about the matter of an appropriation for the Virginia fair which is to be held in 1907. Congress has decided, apparently, to cut off all substantial help from the project and the Virginians are mad clear through in consequence. "The people of Virginia simply wont stand it," said Gen. Lee after his talk with the President. "After the way we pitched in and helped St. Louis, Buffalo, and all the other fairs little and big, we do not intend to be satisfied with a naval display and a few dollars for a monument." Gen. Lee did not indicate what President Roosevelt would do in the matter, but evidently hopes that he will use his influence to persuade the holders of the purse strings to "loosen up."

General Chaffee, grand marshall of the inagural parade, today announced the members of his staff for that function. His chief of staff will be Brigadier General John A. Johnston, Adjutant General, Major William P. Duvall, General Staff; and Assistants Adjutant General, Captains Frank De W. Ramsey, Robert E. L. Michie and John J. Pershing, all of the General Staff of the Army.

The President has removed from office Judge Benjamin S. Baker, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico. Numerous complaints were presented against the judge, and thorough investigation was made by a representative of the Department of Justice. The President in announcing his action said: A change in the judgeship was concluded upon, not because Judge Baker was deemed dishonest or corrupt. Judge Baker was fully examined and his statement taken down for the information of the President, but, so far as the reasons for his removal are concerned, his explanations were not deemed sufficient to prevent a change of judges.

Secret Service detectives are of the opinion that in the big "round up" Thursday night and yesterday by Baltimore detectives are several men wanted in all parts of the country, particularly New York and Pennsylvania, for postoffice robberies. Four of the men have been identified with the recent robberies of small banks and postoffices in Maryland.

Worn out by a long tramp in the woods and having lost his way, Roland L. Bennett, of Glens Falls, N. Y., lay down to die Thursday night within ten rods of the highway connecting North and Indian Lake. This conclusion is reached by persons who found the body yesterday and was later confirmed by the coroner. The carcass of a deer which the man had shot was also found.

A dispatch from London says: The athletic meet of Oxford and Cambridge today, which included their famous cross country run, was won by Cambridge. The Oxford team included Schutt' formerly of Cornell University. The score was Cambridge, 36, Oxford 19 points.

Herr von Vollmar (socialist), in a speech in the Reichstag yesterday, attacked the government, and, referring to Emperor William's telegram to President Roosevelt expressing admiration for the United States, declared that the socialists by no means saw their ideals in American conditions.

Six schoolboys none more than fourteen years old, are under arrest in Chicago awaiting the coroner's verdict on the sudden death of Rabbi Abraham Glick. Glick was killing chickens for David Levy in the rear of the latter's store, when a crowd of boys made him the target of a volley of snowballs, some of which, it is said, contained stones to give weight and accuracy. One snow ball struck Glick on the back of the head, making a small wound. Trembling with excitement, the rabbi ran four blocks to the police station, where he was advised to secure warrants. Glick hurried from the police station to Levy's store. At the door he threw up his hands and fell, dying in a few minutes. The arrest of the boys followed.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

The latest general assault upon Port Arthur by General Nogi's army is told in a thrilling manner in a dispatch dated November 28. The correspondent says that while one force attacked the forts at Rihlung and Kekwan Mountains, with a view to enveloping the city from the east, another force tried a similar movement from the west. The attempt failed after the most furious fighting since Port Arthur was invested. In the terrific attack the Japanese were moved down by hundreds.

Captain Clado, of Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron, who has been opposing the admiralty by agitating in favor of forcing the Dardanelles and sending the Black Sea fleet to reinforce the Russian second Pacific squadron, in St. Petersburg, has been arrested in that city. It appears that Viceroy Alexieff instigated Clado's agitation and that he will be rebuked by being relegated to the Caucausus as viceroy.

In official quarters in London it is learned that an investigation induced by the renewed suggestions of sending out the Russian Black Sea fleet shows that most of the ships of that squadron are dismantled and laid up.

Surprise is expressed in St. Petersburg that the Russian warships at Port Arthur, when under fire, were not moved out and sunk in deep water, where they would be beyond the possibility of salvage. At Tokio it is stated that in disabling the Russian fleet so as to prevent it reinforcing the Russian second Pacific squadron the Japanese accomplished the chief object of their desperate assaults upon the fortress and it is now probable they will rely upon starving out the Russian garrison.

Considerable astonishment is expressed in Tokio over the fact that Russians in no way resisted the disabling of the Port Arthur fleet. In certain quarters the opinion is entertained that the Russians opened the seacocks of the submerged vessels, so as to lessen their exposure to the Japanese fire.

The recent cessation of mine-clearing was taken as evidence that the fleet did not intend to make a sortie. There was no sign of life on the Russian ships during the bombardment, and from this fact it is concluded that the bluejackets took refuge on land or that they are engaged in the land defenses.

With the Russian second Pacific squadron approaching, those in Tokio cannot comprehend the failure of the Russians to die hard and to inflict all possible damage on the Japanese fleet, even at the cost of weakening the effective garrison.

Now that the Port Arthur fleet has been disabled it is deemed impossible for the Russians to overcome the inferiority of the second Pacific squadron to Togo's fleet.

Collision on Coast Line.

The second section of southbound passenger train No. 35, on the Atlantic Coast Line railway, was wrecked near Stony Creek, Sussex county, Thursday night by a head-on collision with the locomotive of a construction train. The engineer of the construction train, Jesse Lawrence, had left his train on a siding and had gone to Stony Creek to get water for his locomotive. The locomotive was on the siding when the first section of train No. 35 passed. Failing to notice the signal that another train was following Engineer Lawrence left Stony Creek and was run into by the second section, running at 35 miles an hour. The collision occurred on a curve. Both locomotives were wrecked and the mail car was telescoped. George Bony, engineer on train No. 35, was slightly hurt, but Fireman Howard Sims, colored, was seriously injured. Engineer Lawrence was not injured. A number of passengers were slightly injured. Three wrecking cars, two from Richmond and one from Rocky Mount, were sent to open the track, which was torn up for 200 or 300 yards.

Hutzler was lighted for the first time by Alfred Moses, the oldest member of the congregation. The first religious services will be held today.

Virginia Volunteers To Get Their Money.

Archibald Hopkins, chief clerk of the United States court of claims, has submitted to Congress a list of the judgments rendered by that tribunal for the year ended Dec. 2 1904. This list is submitted to congress so as to enable that body to make appropriations to cover the amount of the judgments rendered against the United States. About half of the general claims considered by the court were rejected, and almost all of those which claimed big amounts were reduced considerably.

The claims of hundreds of volunteer soldiers and officers were granted by Chief Justice Nott and his associates. The claims of seven members of the Second Virginia volunteer infantry were among those favorably considered. In October judgment was entered in favor of the following men for amounts stated: William P. Kent, $150; Anthony W. Miller, $133.33; Charles E. C. Peyton, $208.33; Wingfield Griffin, $115, and Lewis W. Langhorne, $116.67. On Oct. 31 judgment was entered in favor of Homer G Hogan for $116.67. On Nov. 16. Robert W. Patton was allowed $167.67, and six days later Edwin W. Owens was granted judgment for $150.

All of the men referred to were members of the Second Virginia volunteers. The highest amount allowed to any soldier was awarded to Lawrence J. Logan, a member of the Ninth Massachusetts regiment. Close to him was D. Jack Foster, of the Sixth Illinois infantry.

Rough Initiation.

Twenty-three young women, being initiated as members of the life class at the Art Institute, in Chicago, were spanked before an audience of 400. The candidates had been given to understand that the initiation was a replica of the times when the Knights of the Round Table flourished, and they were brought in attired in velvet doublets and gunnysacks nether garments. Arrainged in front of the sir knights were 23 chairs turned down and end to end. The candidates were instructed to crawl half way through these arches in order to be knighted, but instead of being touched with a sword their guides applied a spanking apparatus with much vigor and manifestations of unlicensed glee. The solemn portrait of President Harper, of the University of Chicago, which viewed the scene from the walls of the lodgeroom, is said to have trembled when the action took place. The new candidates had been promised something quite original in the way of initation, and all admit they got it.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the imflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Today's Telegraphic News

Mrs. Chadwicks' "Securities."

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—The mysterious "securities" held in trust by Iri Reynolds for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, which were announced as valueless in these dispatches yesterday, consist of the following: A note for $5,000,000 bearing the signature of Andrew Carnegie; a certificate of trusteeship which states that Andrew Carnegie has in his possession stocks and bonds to the amount of $7,500,000 held by him in trust for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick. This paper also bears the signature of Mr. Carnegie. These securities, supposed to represent the vast amount of $12,500,000 have been for the past three years the principal basis on which Mrs. Chadwick has conducted her financial system. The note for $5,000,000 is believed to have been written and signed by the same person who filled out and signed the notes for $500,000, and $250,000, held by the Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin. The note of $5,000,000 bears a much earlier date than the others. It was executed in the year 1902. The document purporting to be Mr. Carnegie's certificate of trusteeship for Mrs. Chadwicks securities, is in the same handwriting. Not only is the signature the same but the body of the document is written in the same handwriting. There are two copies exactly alike but executed separately, and neither marked as a duplicate. According to this document, the securities held by Andrew Carnegie for Mrs Chadwick consist of United States Steel bonds, Caledonian Railway stock in Scotland and Great Western Railway in England, the three aggregating $7,500,000. Added to the $12,500,000 "securities," are the $500,000 and $250,000 notes held by the Citizens' National Bank, of Oberlin, and the $500,000 note admitted to exist by President Beckwith, of the Oberlin Bank, making a total of $13,750,000. All three bear Andrew Carnegie's name. All these "securities" will likely be placed in evidence in the Cuyahoga county grand jury investigation of the Chadwick affairs here today. On the strength of these securities, Reynolds is said to have loaned the woman a vast amount of his personal fortune. Attorneys interested in the case and who have examined the "securities" say they are "not worth one cent."

H. W. Bell was this morning appointed receiver by the Common Pleas Court in the Newton suit for the alleged Chadwick securities held by Iri Reynolds.

New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick remains in prison this morning. No bail has as yet as been found and is not likely to in New York. Mrs. Chadwick, for this reason, is firm in her desire to return to Cleveland, where, she claims, she still has influential friends.

Dentist Charged With Murder.

New Ulm, Minn., Dec. 10.—Dr. G. R. Koch, a dentist, of this city, was arrested Friday evening charged with the murder of Dr. L. A. Gebhard, another dentist, who was found murdered in his office on the night of November 1. The warrant for his arrest was sworn by a brother of the murdered man. Preceding the urrest, of Dr. Koch, County Prosecuting Attorney Elmer Herdale agreed to resign his office as the accused dentist is a relative by marriage of Herdale and law partner. Former Attorney General Childs was appointed to act as prosecuting attorney. Dr. Koch is unmarried and has borne a good reputation. One of the clues directing suspicion toward him, was the finding in Dr. Gebbard's office after the murder a a handkerchief bearing the initials "G. R. K."

The Nan Patterson Case.

New York, Dec. 10.—For the first time in many days Nan Patterson the Floradora girl, on trial for the killing of her lover, Caesar Young, was in a happy mood today. The young woman reviewed carefully in her mind the testimony given yesterday by the prosecution and she told her father who called upon her at the Tombs, that the evidence was all in her favor. The next session of the court will be held next Monday, and it is more than likely that the State's case will be presented in its entirety by the end of next week. Miss Patterson is in better health today than she has been for some time and she is rapidly recovering from the effects of her recent illness.

Accident to a Trolley Car.

Portland, Me., Dec. 10.—A trolley car filled with young people returning from a dance at Deering Centre, was struck last night just before midnight by a freight locomotive at the Forest avenue, Woodfords, crossing of the Portland, Worcester & Nashua division of the Boston & Maine. About twenty-five persons were injured, two of them very seriously, but no one was killed. The most seriously injured are Oscar Bowker, the motorman, and Matthew Quinn, a clerk. A panic followed the crash. Every one was thrown down, and as many injuries came from trampling as from the crushing of windows and woodwork.

Fire in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 10.—Fire broke out this morning in the lumber yard connected with the Henry Sheipp Manufacturing Company. This is in the heart of the mill district, and property of immense value was threatened, but effective work on the part of the Sheipp's employees first, and then the fire department, prevented a disastrous spread. A few properties in the neighborhood were slightly burned. The loss is about $150,000.

May Offend England.

Constantinople, Dec. 10.—Ahmed Bey, of the Sultan's staff, left Constantinople today for Bagdad conveying a quantity of arms and ammunition as a gift from the Sultan for Sheik Hurachid, who is fighting Sheik Moubarek. As the latter is a protege of England, this act of Abdul Hamid may result in a Turko-British diplomatic fight.

Hog Kills Horse in Combat.

Springfield, Ohio, Dec. 10.—A fierce fight was waged yesterday between a valuable horse owned by C. A. Young, a well-known turfman, and a hog. The combat resulted in the death of the horse. The hog tore the larger animal to pieces, and appeared as lively as ever after the encounter.

Declared Innocent.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Isaac N. Perry, upon whose shoulders fell the charge of arson when the plant of the Chicago Car & Locomotive Works was partially destroyed by fire October 9th, was declared innocent of the charge Friday afternoon by Justice Frank Foster, of South Chicago, before whom the preliminary hearings had been in progress. It was shown during the hearing that a certain employee of the banker had perjured himself, uttering damaging testimony against Perry. There were also hints of a plot to ruin him in a financial way.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

Augusta, Ky. Dec. 10.—Dr. Edward Courtney and Dr. Carney, rival physicians in the village of Neave, 16 miles from here, engaged in a street fight in front of the former's office Friday, in which Dr. Carney was shot to death. Carney was shot six times and lived only half an hour. The two were former partners, but about a year ago had trouble. Dr. Courtney is married, while Carney was single. Both were Knights of Pythias and were prominent. Dr. Courtney surrendered to the authorities immediately after the shooting.

Entombed in Mine.

Eldorado, Ill., Dec. 10.—Four men are entombed in the Eldorado coal and coke company's mine, with no hope for their rescue; four others are in their homes cut and burned and only two escaped unhurt from an explosion Friday, which wrecked the shaft and demolished the upper works. Spurred on by the cries of agonized wives and children, Patrick Reed, mine boss, braved death to rescue the men. He saved four.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Dec. 10.—Further progress in restoration of confidence was reflected in the market this morning. Considerable activity was enjoyed and the various pool and banking interests paid renewed attention to their favorites. Although amalgamated copper was established on the basis of a point higher than last night the general list moved apparently independently of it.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by E. S. Holiday Gifts for Boys, Girls and Babies.

The holiday season is pre-eminently the children's season. We have everything serviceable and useful for their wants all the year around, but at this particular time many departments are more carefully and abundantly supplied than usual.

The list of gift articles is rather comprehensive and contains things that are useful and serviceable, instructive and amusing—and they are all suitable for Christmas gifts, and are marked at uniformly moderate prices.

Men's Furnishing Store,

(Main Floor, F Street, Just Inside the Door).

Useful Gifts For Men.

In our Men's Store many pleasing Xmas gifts may be found for the men of the family and friends, and even the most fastidious would be pleased with the attractive wearables now displayed. Among the splendid assortments of articles particularly suitable as holiday gifts for men are many elegant and exclusive novelties, of which there are no duplicates here or elsewhere.

The Busy and Jolly Toyland.

The most interesting place for children these before-Christmas days. More than a half acre on the fourth floor filled with everything that man has contrived to make the little eyes snap and sparkle. The most beautiful dolls—and hundreds of kinds of them. Furry and hairy animals—dogs, cats, lambs, cows, monkeys and elephants—a wonderful menagerie. Tool chests for boys with a mechanical bend; iron and tin toys—choo-choo cars, fire engines, ice wagons. Blocks and puzzle games, balls and rubber toys—and then the toys that do things. There are wonderful doll houses for little housekeepers. All sorts of nursery furniture, doll carriages, hobby horses, tenpin sets, board games—everything that Santa Claus has ever made, or Christmas ever brought to light to make the hearts of children happy, is here in the most wonderful profusion.

"The Wizard's Cave."

The performance of this "illustrated story" at the Opera House last night was a success in every way and reflects the greatest credit on the producers, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. O'Brien. It was given for the benefit of the Mission of the Good Shepherd, and a large audience was in attendance. The tableaux, which were pictures from different countries, were very beautiful, and each was doubly encored. In England, Miss Lucy Douglas was statuesque as the leading figure. Miss Elsie Danenhower made a most winsome Scotch lassie, and Miss Kittie Barrett, a dainty Swedish maid. Miss Rebecca Uhler, in Germany, was charming, and Miss Eleanor French, in France, was extremely piquant. In Italy Miss Lelia Steiner was queenly looking as she stood ready to step into her gondola, and in Spain, Miss Jessie Armstrong was fascinating as she listened dreamily to her lover's serenade. The speaking parts were all in good hands. Mr. Benjamin W. Wheatley covered himself with glory by acting as the Wizard. He gave a most consistent portrayal which was much appreciated. Mr. Randall Caton, as the groom, sustained his part in a spirited manner, and was ably seconded by Mr. Page Waller as best man. Miss Bessie Jones, as the bride, with her bevy of beautiful bridesmaids, headed by Miss Agnes Marshall, as maid of honor, looked her loveliest and acted in a most graceful manner. Miss Myra Lee Civalier did well in a small role. The groom's attendants were played in a most satisfactory manner by Messrs. Wilmer Waller, Fred. Moss, Thornton Ashton, Magruder Dent and Edward Fawcett. The music was furnished by Prof. Green's orchestra from Washington.

Alexandria Insurance Company.

The Alexandria Insurance Company of this city, which was incorporated in 1870 and which has been transacting the business of insurance since that time, in view of the present conditions of the business decided to retire from the field and, on the 7th instant, as stated in the Gazette of that day, made an arrangement for the Hartford Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., to assume the liability under all the policies of the Alexandria company from that date and to retire from the insurance business. The career of the Alexandria Insurance Company has been an honorable one and for a greater part of the time quite profitable to its stockholders. In 1871 the stockholders paid in about $12,000 upon which to begin business and in the first 30 years of the company's existence dividends amounting to $96000, were paid. It is regretted that the Alexandria Insurance Company has not been profitable of late but the arrangement made with the Hartford is considered a good one. Mr. Laurence Stabler, secretary of the company, who has had charge of its business for many years, is also agent of the Hartford and will be pleased to give any information desired to the policy holders of the Alexandria company regarding the change and they can rest assured that their interests are very amply protected. The Hartford is one of the oldest companies in the country, having commenced business in 1794. Its assets are $15,000,000 and its surplus $4,000,000.

Another Touch of Winter.

The threatening conditions of yesterday were followed by snow about eleven o'clock last night, and this morning the ground was covered to a depth of two or three inches. The wind at times wafted the snow in blinding sheets through the city, and those compelled to be out dodged each other with heads down in following narrow paths. The mercury had sunk to 26° and the pitiless snow and keen temperature rendered conditions exceedingly uncomfortable. North and south bound trains were more or less late and the cars bore evidence of the frigid weather. Huge icicles hung from the locomotive tenders, and snow covered the roofs of the cars and platforms. The river front presented a dismal aspect. There were but few boats moving up or down. Now and then tugboats forged their way along, the spray was being thrown upon their decks. The snow continued to fall throughout the day and at 4 o'clock had attained a depth of nearly four inches.

W. N. McNair vs. Mary Baker et al.; decree for the resale of the Peyton's Grove property at the western end of King street. Judge J. K. M. Norton entered into bond in the sum of $6,567 to start the property at that sum when again put up at auction. J. M. Johnson, the bonded commissioner in the case, was directed to refund the money paid him by the purchasers of the lots.

Maccabees.

Alexandria Tent, No. 2, Knights of the Maccabees, held an interesting review Monday night last with a very large attendance. Two applications for memberships were received. The following election of officers were and the following officers were elected: Past Commander, T. M. Jones; commander, M. E. Miller; lieutenant commander, Dr. R. L. Wilkins; record keeper, George K. Bender; chaplain, J. M. Cornnell; sergeant, George W. Zachary; master of arms, B. E. Bailey; 1st. master of guards, Frank Grillbortzer; 2nd master of guards, L. J. Miller; sentinel, T. M. Cragg. The Maccabees is one of the safest and best fraternal insurance organizations in existence and the order is making rapid growth all over the country.

House Burned,

A frame house on the southwest corner of Pendleton and Alfred streets was discovered to be on fire this morning, and an alarm was turned in. The house was occupied by Ella Holmes, colored, and she had previously been compelled to leave her little child in charge while she went to work in a neighboring house. When the woman heard her house was burning she imagined her offspring would perish in it, and her manifestations of anxiety were excruciating until assured that neighbors had rescued the child. The fire burned fiercely and although a quick response was made by the department, the structure was practically destroyed before the flames were subdued. The origin of the fire is unknown.

To Institute New Lodge.

At the meeting last night of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows a commiteee was appointed to visit Manassas next Thursday night and institute a lodge of Odd Fellows at that place. The committee will be accompanied by Deputy Grand Master Ashford, of Culpeper, and several members of Sarepta Lodge of this city.

The following officers of Potomac Lodge were elected last night to serve during the ensuing term: Noble Grand, A. H. Mitchell; Vice Grand, Hermond Freelander; Recording Secretary, Wm. M. Latham; Financial Secretary, Wm. M. Sherwood; Treasurer, L. Morgan Davis; Chaplain, Edgar Lyles.

Writ of Error Denied.

The writ of error applied for by the counsel of John Whalen, recently convicted of grand larceny in the Corporation Court of this city, has been denied by the Court of Appeals. Whalen, it will be remembered, was convicted of stealing two barrels of whisky from Mr. M. R. O'Sullivan last August, and was sentenced to five years' confinement in the penitentiary. Judgment was stayed in order to allow counsel for the accused to apply for a writ of error. The action of the Court of Appeals is final, and Whalen will be sent to the penitentiary to serve out his term.

Property Sales.

A deed was put on record today under which Mr. H. F. Wheat conveys to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company a lot and the buildings thereon on the east side of Union street, between Queen and Princess, and the wharf property thereon.

Mr. David N. Rust, jr., has recently sold a tract of land containing 80 acres near Cowdon station to Mrs. Susan P. A. Calvert.

The Market.

There was a meagre supply of country produce in market this morning, and prices in consequence were firm. Eggs were still selling at 35 cents per dozen, while butter, fresh pork, vegetables &c., were unchanged in prices. The wintry weather kept numbers of country people at home. The hucksters, butchers and fish dealers had average supplies of articles in their respective lines which were sold at former rates.

Door Mat Thieves.

Hallway thieves are again plying their vocation, and reports of thefts are made to the police daily. There is reason to believe that many articles are stolen of which no reports are made. The door mat at the front door of the residence of Mr. Thomas Ballenger, on south St. Asaph street, was stolen last night, as was also that at the residence of Mrs. Grymes, on south Alfred street.

Officer Knight yesterday evening arrested a colored man named Malachi Ballard, who is charged with deserting from the United States navy. He left with his prisoner for Norfolk last night. FAT MACKEREL for sale at 5c, 10c, 5 and 20c each by J. C. MILBURN

Alexandria Gazette.

SATURDAY EVENING. DEC. 10, 1904.

Apostolic Blessing.

Rev. John A. Conway, director of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin at Georgetown University, yesterday received the following letter from Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, in reply to a letter sent several weeks ago to Pope Pius X, advising him of the contemplated celebration at Georgetown University on December 7 and 8 of the fiftieth anniversary of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception:

"From your letter His Holiness is gratified to learn that you have in good season determined to celebrate with solemnity and rejoicing the coming jubilee of the Immaculate Mother of God. Fitting, indeed, it is that sons should recall to the memory the glory of so great a mother, and thus find encouragement in the pursuit of virtue and greater assistance from this celestial virgin. But what impressed His Holiness as especially noteworthy is the fact that the Sodality of Mary is longer established than any other in North America, and accordingly, with so many happy years of existence to its record, it stands out pre eminently as a monument of piety and devotion to the Mother of God. In order, however, to add to the joys of these jubilee solemnities the most Holy Pontiff, commending most entirely your noble project, very affectionately imparts as a token of divine gifts the apostolic blessing en you, on all the members of the sodality and with you on all others assisting in the celebration."

Grave in Solid Rock.

The remains of Robert A. Beverley, who died at Beverley, S. C., on Wednesday, were buried yesterday in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Winchester, in a grave that was almost a solid limestone rock. While James Hamilton, the cemetery superintendent, was drilling for a blast to make the grave he fell in and broke three ribs.

Mr. Beverley's remains arrived in Winchester Thursday night, accompanied by his brother, J. B. Beverley, who was with him when he died. Services were held yesterday afternoon at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, of which he had been a vestrymen. Among those in attendance were Mr. Kemp Duval and the wife of Dr. Atkinson, of Balimore, brother and sister of Mrs. Beverley.

Grave of Washington's Father.

The Colonial Dames of Virginia have placed a slab over the grave of Augustus Washington, father of George Washington, at Great Bridge, Westmoreland county, and restored the tomb of his first wife, Jane Butler. The next effort of this organization will be the raising of funds to secure a silver service for the battleship Virginia, built at the Newport News Shipyard. The Colonial Dames made a personal visit to President McKinley and secured his promise to have named after Virginia one of the great battleships then projected by the Navy Department. They propose that the service shall be very handsome.

Cloak for Each Gown.

New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt has started the fashion of having an opera cloak to match each gown. Every time she has appeared at the opera this season she has worn a different costume, including the outer cloak. On the opening night of the opera Mrs. Vanderbilt's gown of white satin was covered by a cloak of the same material, lined throughout with ermine. Her next gown was blueish green velvet and the cloak of velvet was trimmed with strips of chinchilla. Last Monday night she wore white velvet with trappings of pink roses and lace. Her cloak was of brocade—pink roses on a white ground—and the sleeves were filled with lace.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S,

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsend remedy. Respectfully yours,

E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it as be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless, I could not walk for two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by all druggists.

Resolved, That the Collector of Taxes be, and he is hereby, directed to proceed and sell at public auction all real estate in the city of Alexandria on which taxes are due and unpaid to June 1, 1904, in conformity to the City Charter and laws relating to the same, said sale to commence Thursday, December 15, 1904, at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue from time to time and from day to day until all such real estate is sold.
